Governance and management

The group is managed within the boundaries of the constitution which was agreed at the initial AGM.

Aims and objectives

Overall aim:

To collectively support local children, young people, families and the older generation to actively participate in community activities and influence the issues and decisions that affect our lives.

Specific Aims:

The creation of a formal consortium open to voluntary, community, youth organisations in Rhyl that enables and encourages close partnerships working, reduced duplication and improved financial sustainability.

Creation of a fit for purpose facility in the heart of the town center that provides space and services for various groups to run their projects from.

To engage with stakeholders and decision makers at national and local level to ensure the views of local people, (especially those not usually heard) are fed directly to the right people who can effect change.

Summary of the main achievements during the period

The priority has been to follow the vision plan and continue to develop the new facility.
